Mrs. L. W. O'Connell, at Pascagoula.	That true self-respect never hurts a person's self-respect.	At the residence of the bride, Moss Point, Miss., Wednesday, June 24, 1896, at 8 p.m., by Rev. J. F. Bryan, Mr. ALLEN JONES and Miss MARY FELLOW, both of Moss Point.
Deputy Sheriff EDWARD Taylor, of Vancleave, was in town Monday on legal business. He reports peace and plenty in his section.	That the male portion of our negro population is taking to the bicycle.	May happiness and prosperity attend them.
Scranton needs a few more dwelling houses, with six or eight rooms, for rent. There is a demand for that class of houses right now.	That with a great many persons honor hardly casts a shadow.	OFFICIATOR
Don't send your orders off for job printing when you can have just as fine work done right here in your own town at the DEMOCRAT-STAR office.	That when a man enters politics they unfit him for anything else.	At the residence of the bride's father, near Americus, Miss., at 12 m., on Sunday, June 20, 1896, by Rev. J. HOWARD, Rev. H. G. WILLIAMS of Vernal, Miss., and Miss LEONIE C. O'NEILL of Americus.
Mrs. Ernest Buck, of Chunchee, Ala., accompanied by her charming daughter, Miss Libbie, have been the guests of Mr. F. D. Ruter for several days.	That poverty is the cruellest thorn in the very thorny path of life.	After a splendid dinner and an hour's social ch-joyment partaken of by a small family party, the preacher and his wife, the happy couple, started off on the journey of life, all absorbed in each other's happiness and hopes of future success. May the smiles of heaven and earth rest upon them.
Mr. F. P. Scarsell sent to the DEMOCRAT-STAR a tall stalk of corn, having thereon five well-developed ears. He has a large crop growing on his farm at Bayou Cassote.	That married men admire woman's meekness, but only in their own wives.	P. HOWARD.
The fire suspects should be closely watched, and on proof of their guilt they should be made to stretch a rope on the historical live oak tree on Krebs greenne, in front of Becht's barber shop.	That to excuse drunkenness on the score of sociability testifies to a very weak intellect.	IN MEMORIAM.
The 4th of July being a legal holiday, the Scranton State Bank will not be opened on that day. All those wanting money for pay rolls, etc., are reminded to make their arrangements the day before.	That many a man prides himself on a religion that never gets within a million miles of God.	In loving memory of JOSEPH CAREY LAURENDINE who died in Mobile, Ala., June 24, 1896, these lines are written by his cousin, Norma Laurendine.
Mr. W. J. E. Gerard was in town Friday last to purchase lumber for a dwelling to be erected on the lot on Pascagoula street adjoining the property of Mr. A. G. Delmas. The dwelling, when completed, will be occupied by Messrs. Labutan & Hughes.	That some people hoard the truth as miser hoards gold, and never use it if they can help doing so.	Farewell, dearest, best loved cousin. Thy will'd that thou shouldst go From our midst away to Heaven. While we're crushed with grief and woe.
Mrs. M. L. Pol, accompanied by her son-in-law, Mr. Geo. J. Santa Cruz of Mobile, and the latter's little son, Master James, visited Chalybeate Springs, Ky., last week. They returned Sunday greatly benefited by the trip.	That if some fathers knew what their babies thought of them, they would make haste to drown themselves.	Thou wert so young, and pure, and lovely. With no sinful blight or stain. Either on thy boyish conscience, Or thy fair unsullied name.
Mrs. L. C. Roberts, of Franklin, Tenn., daughter of Congressman M. M. Cox, of that State, is visiting her friend, Miss Katherine Denny, this week. She is a lady of high attainments, which warrant a gracious reception wherever she may go.	That the suspected fire-bugs ought to be hung by order of Judge Lynch's court. That is the only way to rid the town of them.	God had made thee bright and noble, And no one thy place can fill; May He heal the hearts now broken, And give thee rest—out on the Hill.
Mr. C. E. Roe, formerly of Moss Point, but now of Spring Hill, Ala., was a welcome visitor to the DEMOCRAT-STAR office, Thursday, last week. He is well pleased with his new home. Although a gold-bug he turned silver for the "old reliable" the other year.	Miss Nelson Nelson will leave for Salem, Va., next Sunday, on a visit to relatives.	Truest son that e'er blessed parents, Even in dying thou wert brave; And sought with latest breath to cheer them While surely sinking to the grave.
Father A. Baum, of Paulding, Miss., arrived in Scranton Monday to assume the duties of his new charge. Father Baum is a native of Alsace, and for the past seventeen years has done missionary work in the more southern fields of Mississippi.	The Sunbeam Society will hereafter hold their monthly meetings on the first Sunday in each month, instead of the third, as heretofore.	Thou has left us here so lonely. Where e'er thy presence dear, was known. And we hope one day to meet thee In thy golden, peaceful home.
To-morrow (Saturday) is the 4th of July, 1896. The colored population hereabouts are making preparations to celebrate the day in the usual manner. We don't think they will be able to do so, however, and have fun on the 4th.	The brick Presbyterian church building has at last been completed, but will not be ready for occupancy for some time yet, as it is not seated nor furnished.	May our Savior bless and comfort Those that mourn thy heavy loss, Give them grace to try to meet thee, And patience to support their cross.
A very pleasant surprise was given to Mrs. F. G. Jones, of New Orleans, on Friday night, when she was invited to a social gathering at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Huggins.	Mr. Alex Roland, the handsome and popular stevedore from Sabine Pass, Texas, stopped off here this week to visit his old friends. He is en route to Mobile on business.	May His redemeering love to save thee, For whom He wore a bleeding scar; Steer thou Spirit ship in safety, Over the mystic Harbor Bar.
The reporter's thanks are respectfully tendered to Mr. M. T. Russell, of Grand Bay; Prof. D. D. Cowan, Messrs. W. E. Frederic and Geo. Delius for some juicy watermelons recently received from these gentlemen.	Mr. C. Bosarge has recently sold his East Side home to Mr. W. M. Gandy, and has since then commenced the erection of a dwelling on North Pascagoula street, near the residence of Mr. Geo. H. Huggins.	And there land thy pain-tossed spirit Among the souls, his love has blessed, Where the wicked never trouble, And the tired soul finds rest.
The New-York Tribune, of New York City, has a large advertisement in the paper, offering a reward of $1,000 for the capture of the "Terror," the notorious bandit of the West.	The brick Presbyterian church building has at last been completed, but will not be ready for occupancy for some time yet, as it is not seated nor furnished.	Port of Pascagoula.
Mr. A. Greenleve, of Vicksburg; W. K. Terry and H. L. Badham, of Birmingham, agents of the Cottage by the Sea, Pascagoula, and fishing at Bayou Graveline Monday and made a rich haul. They landed more fish than they could carry, and that ain't goin' to be the last time.	Mr. C. Bosarge has recently sold his East Side home to Mr. W. M. Gandy, and has since then commenced the erection of a dwelling on North Pascagoula street, near the residence of Mr. Geo. H. Huggins.	Office DEMOCRAT-STAR, Scranton, Miss., July 3, 1896.
The fire-bugs are at their old business again. Thursday night, about 11:30, the old Frederic flour mill was fired again, but幸亏 he had got an hydrant it was discontinued. A few feet of oak was consumed.	Mr. C. Bosarge has recently sold his East Side home to Mr. W. M. Gandy, and has since then commenced the erection of a dwelling on North Pascagoula street, near the residence of Mr. Geo. H. Huggins.	[Report for Week ending July 2, 1896.]

W. D. Burd will preach at Zion on the fourth Sunday, and will preach at Scranton at night of the same day (being next Sunday). Old lady Vice died at the residence of her son last week. Her death was very sudden, though her health had been bad for some time. The nice young man came to see his best girl again Sunday. The drive to the Springs is a most delightful one. Somebody else must have felt blue. Keep your cows out of your neighbor's garden. It's a very bad principle to allow your stock to break into a poor man's garden and destroy it. Mr. Phil Davis makes and sells fine ice cream at his store on Dutch bayou, on Saturday evenings. Besides the ice cream fresh and fine, he has watermelons just from the vine. He also keeps ice for sale. If you want to see style, drive out on the "Boulevard de l'Anse" on Sunday afternoons, and view the colored bou-tous per- ambulating that thoroughfare, dust and heat no obstacle. "Oh, my!" "Yes," said she, they talk me that Dr. Turner said she had the paroxysms (meningitis) and the re- action fever both together, and it was impossible for her to fit well; and besides, he said that was due to leprosy she had in the left side, and then she took the collapse on top of dat." "Ugh!" is dated. The picnic and excursion to Sea-shore by the Baptist Sunday school was well attend- ed. The Professor got lost, but got there all right by a later train. Some of the boys got off at Scranton to see the town and got lost, but they got there all safe after awhile. They had a fine time for pleasure and all en- joyed it though some thought dinner time would have been made more pleasant. It was a matter of course that the pastor, Rev. J. F. Byram, and wife could not attend, on account of sick children at home. Refreshing showers off and on visit our center of resort. Indeed, every weather is much the order of the day, and the people who are here with their new summer dresses and nice summer hats on, often wish they had umbrellas.	THE CRUISE IN THE SKYLINER. Mr. Burton, the soft voices of the indies and the murmur of the sus- ping, leaping, laughing sea, made music indescribably sweet and time went quickly by. The mouth of the river was soon reached, the light- house on the point, railroad bridge and glimmering lights of the city of Pensacola rapidly passed, and by 10 o'clock the great saw-mill town of Moss Point came into view. Land- ings were soon made, and in a little while this most delightful outing was a thing of the past, though with some memories of its pleasures still linger- ing in the future. MONROE, LA., June 26, 1896. HARRIED. On Wednesday, June 24, 1896, at 11:30 A.M., a wedding was celebrated at the home of Mr. John Y. Ryan, H. D. Sun- ders, Mobile. SOULES TO SCRANTON. Ocean Springs, Miss., June 21.—In the return game here the Soules gave the Scranton aggregation a severe drubbing on the new park diamond this morning, shutting them out entirely until the sixth inning, when they made their first score on an error. The score was Soules 13, Scrant- ton 8. The home boys put up a fine game all through and but for the error in the sixth would have shut Scranton out entirely, as they played a loose game after they saw a shut out was impossible. The batters were Soules Henderson and Abby. Scranton Krebs and Neff. BEST PASCAGOULA ITEMS. NEWSPAPERS.
